3.4.1 Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community

The college organizes a number of extension activities to promote institute neighborhood community to sensitize the students towards community needs. The students of our college actively participate in social service activities leading to their overall development. The college runs effectively National Service Scheme Units. Through these units, the college undertakes various extension activities in the neighborhood community. NSS organizes a residential five day camp in nearby adopted village and several activities were carried out by NSS volunteers addressing social issues which include cleanliness, tree plantation, water conservation through construction of Bandhara, road construction, Shramdan, Social interaction, Group discussion, Eradication of superstition, Beti Bacho Beti Padhao, Environmental awareness, Women empowerment, National Integrity, AIDS awareness, Superstition eradication, Blood donation camp, Health checkup camp, Eye Check up Camps Veterinary guidance, Farmers meet, Awareness about farmer's suicide etc.

Other than NSS units, the various departments of the college is conscious about its responsibilities for shaping students into responsible citizens of the country by making students aware of social issues through various programmes like Environmental Awareness, Personal Health and Hygiene, Diet awareness, Road Safety, Tree Plantation, Soil and Water Testing, Plastic eradication, Janani Suraksha, Programme on female feticide, organizing visit to Orphanages and Anganwadi, Voters awareness, Blood group detection, Health check-up camps, Blood donation camps.

All these mentioned activities have positive impact on the students and it develops student community relationship, leadership skill and self-confidence of students. It also helped in cultivating hidden personality of students and creates awareness about social surroundings among them.
